

Jay is a Canadian science writer/broadcaster. He has hosted two national science programs in Canada, Quirks and Quarks on CBC radio and Daily Planet on Discovery Channel Canada. He has written 13 books, which have been translated into 14 languages, has five honorary degrees and is a member of the Order of Canada.

Jay Ingram

Harry is often referred to as the “Canadian Joel Salatin,”. He raise's 100% grass-fed beef, lamb, pastured pork and poultry with a mission to use agriculture to regenerate the planet and create a flourishing future for all living things. Author of Real Dirt: An Ex-industrial Farmer's Guide to Sustainable Eating in 2013.

Harry Stoddard

Chad was CNN's 2013 Hero of the Year and founder of Living Land & Waters organization in Illinois. He has dedicated his life to cleaning up the Mississippi river and other U.S. waterways. Managing over 70,000 volunteers over 15 years together they have collected over 7 million tons of garbage. Close to 90% of what he recovers is recycled.

Chad Pregracke

40th Annual Manitoba Conservation Districts

Conference

A Celebration of Our Watershed Successes

December 7, 8 & 9th, 2015

Keystone Centre, Brandon, Manitoba

•Early Bird Conference Price $235 (incl. keynotes)
Deadline Nov. 20th, 2015

•Any extra tickets to see afternoon keynotes
Jay Ingram and Chad Pregracke $20

To register or for further information please contact –
Shane Robins (204)570-0164 info@mcda.ca www.mcda.ca (paypal available online)

